On Saturday the N. F. A. team left for Hartford, where they lost in a hard fought game with more or less rough-ness to the Hartford High school team on the Trinity field. The score, which ness to the Harriord riigh school team on the Trinity field. The score, which was 21-0, does not tell the story, how-ever, for some of the decisions of the referee of Harriord are questionable. The team fought well and the losing of the game can be accounted for by the furnishing of punts and hard luck the fumbling of punts and hard luck. The line was in shipshape form, both on the defensive and offensive. Herbert, Isbister and Elliot broke through frequently and secured good tackles. Approach of Football Weather Puts the Finish to Baseball Next Saturletics as Long as He Likes. While the Athletics were last week putting the finishing touches on their last series of the season in the south. Manager Mack buried a fine bomb-shell in the ranks of those who are yearly peddling Harry Davis as a maneger for some other club and leaving the Athletics. "I'm sick and tired of reading that stuff." said Connie. "Do you suppose that I would ver peddle Harry Davis? Now, mark this, if Harry Davis ever leaves the Athletics it will be for a reason of Harry's own. Whenever Davis feels his playing days are over Davis feels his playing days are over and he wants to get a berth with a club, then we will talk the natter over. Harry and myself. But you can bet that Harry Davis will never leage the Athletics because some club owner comes home and says Con, I would like to get Harry Davis. Not on your life. Harry stays with the Athletics as long as he fants. This is the last time I'm going to dignify this sort of time I'm going to dignify this sort of rot with an answer."

When Syracuse kicked two goals from the field in Saturday's game with Yale, it was the first time that an opposing team had scored on Old Eli-since Harvard turned the trick in 1998.
